Our mission:

The Pacific Northwest Western Dressage Association is a 501(c)(3) educational non-profit organization focusing on providing a model of horsemanship that optimizes the partnership of horse and rider for their mutual benefit. The mission of the PNWWDA is to honor the horse, to value the relationship between the horse and rider, and to celebrate the legacy of the American West, which it focuses on through its offerings of educational opportunities and events to the equestrian community.
